15 states (including DC) had broadband rates significantly higher than the U.S.

22 states had broadband rates significantly lower than the U.S.

14 states had broadband rates not statistically different from the U.S.

5 states with the LOWEST internet access rate
- West Virginia 79.0%
- Louisiana 78.3%
- Arkansas 77.3%
- New Mexico 76.9%
- Mississippi 76.4%

5 states with the HIGHEST internet access rate
- Utah 89.9%
- Washington 89.8%
- Colorado 89.6%
- New Hampshire 89.1%
- California 88.7%

U.S. Rate 85.0%

SHADAC analysis of the American Community Survey (ACS) Public Use Microdata Sample (PUMS) files.