

California Health Interview Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: Over 30 public agencies and private organizations have funded the CHIS since its inception. These groups have included, in recent years, the Indian Health Service, Kaiser Permanente, the National Institutes of Health, RAND Corporation, and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.
Fielded/Managed by: UCLA Center for Health Policy Research and California Department of Public Health and the Department of Health Care Services

The California Health Interview Survey (CHIS) is a mixed-mode (telephone and online) survey of California's residential, non-institutionalized population. The survey was fielded every other year starting in 2001 and has been fielded annually since 2011. The CHIS is the nation's largest state-level health survey with approximately 20,000 California households surveyed each year.

California Employer Health Benefits Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: California HealthCare Foundation and National Opinion Research Center
Fielded/Managed by: National Research, LLC

The California Employer Health Benefits Survey (CEHBS) is an annual survey of employee benefit managers in private firms in California. The first iteration took place in 1999 as a supplement to the National Employer Health Benefits Survey based on California firms. In the years of 2012 to 2017, CEHBS samples have ranged from 651 to 801 employer interviews.

Colorado Employer Benefits Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: Lockton Companies
Fielded/Managed by: Lockton Companies

The Colorado Employer Benefits Survey (CEBS) is an annual survey of employers throughout the state of Colorado that has been conducted since 2000. Recent iterations of the CEBS have received survey responses ranging from 78 employers (2018) to 147 employers (2012).

Idaho Fringe Benefits Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: Idaho Department of Labor
Fielded/Managed by: Idaho Department of Labor

The Idaho Fringe Benefits Survey (IFBS) is a periodic survey of Idaho employers conducted by the Idaho Department of Labor and has been fielded seven times between 2002 and 2019. Prior to 2019 the IFBS was distributed via postal mail with follow-up telephone calls, but the 2019 survey was administered entirely online. The number of completed surveys in each iteration of IFBS has ranged from 156 (2019 IFBS) to 2,172 (2005 IFBS).

Iowa Employer Benefits Study

Sponsored/Funded by: David P. Lind Benchmark
Fielded/Managed by: David P. Lind Benchmark with support by Data Point Research, Inc.

The Iowa Employer Benefits Study (IEBS) is an annual survey conducted since 1999 by David P. Lind Benchmark, an employee benefits research firm based in Clive, Iowa. Approximately 1,000 Iowa employers respond to the survey each year.

Louisiana Health Insurance Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: Louisiana Department of Health
Fielded/Managed by: Louisiana Department of Health with assistance from Louisiana State University

The Louisiana Health Insurance Survey (LHIS) is a biennial, mixed-mode (telephone and online) survey of Louisiana residents that began in 2003. The 2019 LHIS added internet surveys to augment telephone surveys. At least 8,500 Louisiana households have been interviewed in every iteration of the LHIS.

Massachusetts Health Insurance Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: Center for Health Information and Analysis
Fielded/Managed by: Center for Health Information and Analysis and Social Science Research Solutions

The Massachusetts Health Insurance Survey (MHIS) is a mixed-mode (telephone and online) household survey that has been fielded periodically since 1998 and biennially since 2015. The MHIS is part of the Continuing Program of Study on Insurance Coverage, Underinsurance, and Uninsurance at the Center for Health Information and Analysis (CHIA) in Boston. The four most recent iterations of MHIS for which survey results are available have each received more than 4,000 completed surveys from Massachusetts households.

Massachusetts Employer Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: Center for Health Information and Analysis
Fielded/Managed by: John Snow, Inc., and National Opinion Research Center

The Massachusetts Employer Survey (MES), also referred to as the Massachusetts Employer Health Insurance Survey, is a biennial, mixed-mode (postal mail, telephone, and online) survey of firms in Massachusetts. MES has been fielded since 2001; it was conducted biennially from 2001 through 2009, annually in 2010 and 2011, and on a biennial basis beginning in 2014. The MES is part of the Continuing Program of Study on Insurance Coverage, Underinsurance, and Uninsurance at the Center for Health Information and Analysis (CHIA) in Boston. The 2018 MES garnered 1,064 completed surveys, higher than any previous MES survey.

Massachusetts Health Reform Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts Foundation
Fielded/Managed by: Social Science Research Solutions and the Urban Institute

The Massachusetts Health Reform Survey (MHRS) is a periodic telephone survey of nonelderly adults in Massachusetts that was first conducted in 2006 to support the evaluation of Massachusetts' 2006 health care reform bill. To date, the MHRS has been fielded nine times: 2006-2010, 2012-2013, 2015, and 2018. The MHRS sample sizes have ranged from 2,014 nonelderly adults (2015 MHRS) to 4,046 nonelderly adults (2008 MHRS).

Minnesota Health Access Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: Minnesota Department of Health
Fielded/Managed by: Minnesota Department of Health and the State Health Access Data Assistance Center

The Minnesota Health Access Survey (MNHA) is a biennial, mixed-mode (postal mail and telephone) survey of Minnesotans that collects information on health insurance and healthcare access. The MNHA was first fielded in 2001, again in 2004, and biennially since 2007. The number of survey respondents in each iteration of the MNHA has ranged from 9,700 to 27,000 households, with 12,436 responses in 2017.

Ohio Medicaid Assessment Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: The Ohio Department of Medicaid and The Ohio State University
Fielded/Managed by: RTI International and a number of health-associated state agencies, including the Ohio Department of Medicaid, Ohio Department of Health, Ohio Colleges of Medicine and Government Resource Center, and the Ohio State University.

The Ohio Medicaid Assessment Survey (OMAS) is a periodic telephone survey of Ohioans that has been fielded eight times since 1998. From 1998 to 2010, the OMAS was known as the "Ohio Family Health Survey." The OMAS achieved 42,876 interviews in 2015, 39,711 interviews in 2017, and 31,629 interviews in 2019.

Ohio State Employment Relations Board Health Insurance Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: Ohio State Employment Relations Board
Fielded/Managed by: Ohio State Employment Relations Board

The State Employment Relations Board (SERB) Health Insurance Survey is an annual survey of public sector employers across Ohio. The survey has been conducted for 29 years, and typically receives more than 1,000 responses annually.

Vermont Household Health Insurance Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: State of Vermont
Fielded/Managed by: State of Vermont

The Vermont Household Health Insurance Survey (VHHIS) is a periodic telephone survey that has been conducted since 2000, with subsequent surveys taking place in 2005, 2008, 2009, 2012, 2014, and 2018. VHHIS typically achieves between 3,000 and 5,000 completed interviews in each survey year.

Wyoming Benefits Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: Research and Planning section of the Wyoming Department of Workforce Services
Fielded/Managed by: Research and Planning section of the Wyoming Department of Workforce Services.

The Wyoming Benefits Survey (WBS) is a periodic survey that collects data from Wyoming employers about the workplace benefits they offer their employees. The WBS has been conducted over 15 times since 1999.

Wisconsin Family Health Survey

Sponsored/Funded by: Wisconsin Department of Health Services
Fielded/Managed by: University of Wisconsin Survey Center

The Wisconsin Family Health Survey (FHS) is a telephone survey of Wisconsin households that has been conducted annually since 1989, with the exception of 2013. The FHS typically achieves about 2,400 household interviews per year.