

The Next Wave of Health Care Reform

Friday, April 12

11:45 AM – 1:00 PM

Room: Mayo Auditorium

Join us for a lively discussion of the current state of health reform in the United States. Professor Lynn Blewett will facilitate a discussion with the Kaiser Family Foundation's Larry Levitt on recent and perhaps pivotal events in health policy. We will discuss the latest ruling by a federal judge on Kentucky and Arkansas Medicaid work requirements, the recent ruling on Association Health Plans, and the announcement by the President for renewed efforts to repeal the Affordable Care Act. We will also look ahead to the future of the U.S. health care system and discuss the recent Medicare for All proposals, health care as a presidential election issues and Medicaid and Medicare buy-in proposals. You won't want to miss it!
