In 2016, Alabama adults with less than a high school education were more than 4 TIMES as likely as those with a Bachelor's degree or higher to skip needed care due to cost.

29.1% of adults with less than a high school diploma

6.7% of adults with a Bachelor degree or higher

16.9% of Alabama adults had less than a high school education in 2016.

14.1% of U.S. adults had less than a high school education in 2016.