In 2016, Colorado adults with less than a high school education were more than 2 TIMES as likely as those with a Bachelor's degree or higher not to have a personal doctor.

48.2% of adults with less than a high school diploma
18.4% of adults with a bachelor degree or higher

9.9% of Colorado adults had less than a high school education in 2016.

14.1% of U.S. adults had less than a high school education in 2016.