In 2016, Georgia adults with less than a high school education were more than 2 TIMES as likely as those with a Bachelor's degree or higher not to have a personal doctor.

- 41.6% of adults with less than a high school diploma
- 20.1% of adults with a bachelor degree or higher

16.1% of Georgia adults had less than a high school education in 2016.

14.1% of U.S. adults had less than a high school education in 2016.