In 2016, Nevada adults with less than a high school education were more than 2 TIMES as likely as those with a Bachelor's degree or higher not to have a personal doctor.

44.2% of adults with less than a high school diploma
20.9% of adults with a Bachelor degree or higher

16.3% of Nevada adults had less than a high school education in 2016.

14.1% of U.S. adults had less than a high school education in 2016.